

Arizona Tribal Leaders' Roundtable

Opening Remarks

Gov. Jan Brewer

Tuesday, January 17, 2012

Good afternoon, everyone!

I'm sure your schedules have been filled with all the events surrounding Tribal Legislative day. But, it's good to see you all again.

At our last meeting -- just a month ago -- we touched briefly on strategies to stimulate our economy and we updated you on the Arizona Ready initiative. I remain committed to working with you and supporting efforts related to Medicaid waivers.

Now that I've released my budget proposals -- along with the Centennial Edition of the Four Cornerstones of Reform -- and now that the Legislature is in session, it's important for us to have this time together.

So, I'd like to go around the room and have you share what's on your mind.

(ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION)

Thank you for this time together and please feel free to continue sharing your thoughts with Kristine FireThunder at the Commission of Indian Affairs. Thank you.
